Qualifications

What do you need to become a Everything Happy Founding Director?

- Qualify as a Director on the Everything Happy Career Path in 2012.
- Maintain your Director rank in good standing.

The Everything Happy Founding Director Program is a ground floor opportunity with an incredible company! Every Founding Director will speak with the Everything Happy Founders Emily Holdridge and Melanie Stolarski, and play a key role in the future of Everything Happy. In addition, Founding Directors will receive personalized coaching from the Everything Happy Home Office team.

*Current, active selling consultants immediately qualify for Home Office Leads, but will need to reach Director Level on the Everything Happy Career Path before qualifying for the remaining rewards.

The Founding Director Revenue Pool recognizes the role Founding Directors play in the company's growth. Each month, beginning February 2013, Everything Happy will calculate the company's revenue growth over the prior month and allocate 1% to the Founder Pool. The pool will be divided among the qualified Founding Directors based on their total downline volume. These Founding Director Revenue Pool rewards are in addition to the generous Everything Happy compensation plan!
